EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

IHM Ranchi creates history by making 135 nos. of Madua based dishes to claim “India Book of Records 2022” on its 3rd Foundation Day

Institute of Hotel Management Ranchi, a premier institution under the Department of Tourism, Govt. of Jharkhand and affiliated to National Council for Hotel Management and Catering Technology under the Ministry of Tourism, Govt. of India has made a distinct mark in the culinary history of the state.

In order to mark the celebration of “International Year of Millet 2023”, IHM Ranchi has showcased its culinary excellence by preparing 135 nos. of millet based dishes in a record time of 27 minutes. In an attempt to bag the prestigious “India Book of Records 2022” the institute has chosen to highlight the potential usage of the millet which is popularly known as “Madua” and remains generally restricted to domestic kitchens of the household to the culinary platter of modern commercial kitchens and food business by making delicious savory items, starters, entree, main course dishes and the lip smacking desserts.

All the 135 no. of delicacies prepared during the attempt included Madua as the base ingredient in their recipes highlighting its immense health benefits, nutritional value and versatility in the culinary world. The successful execution of such mega events by an academic institution required an extensive planning by the culinary R&D team and timely preparation by students under the able guidance of young and enthusiastic teachers of IHM Ranchi. The partners of the event were the flagbearers for promotion of Jharkhandi cuisine at global platform included the team from Hotel Radisson Blu, Ranchi and Jharkhand Caterers Association, support, guidance and motivation from all the stakeholders made this event a grand success.

SMART Classes on Personality Development
